

Can You Mend the Spend?

Quiz: What will you spend more than $300,000 on in retirement, but it's not a house, a luxury car or a fancy boat?

Is it a personal robot? No. A time machine to your high school prom? Not it. Find out for yourself.

Is Debt a Threat?

Carrying debt into retirement is like celebrating a new workout routine with a banana-split sundae – counterproductive. That’s because making debt payments during retirement can eat away at the cash you have for priorities like healthcare, travel and recreational activities. Additionally, debt may force you to withdraw more money from your retirement savings, which can cause significant lifestyle changes down the road. Use our easy debt calculator to find out if you’ve got too much.

Is Investing an Extreme Sport?

There are some activities in retirement that you might shy away from. Tightrope walking. Flagpole sitting. Snake charmer. Volcano boarding. (Yes, it is a real thing. Just envision sledding down a volcano.) But investing is not one of those, and it can help grow your savings.
